These little deer don’t eat their beets.
Oh, dear! They don’t.
It’s clear they won’t.

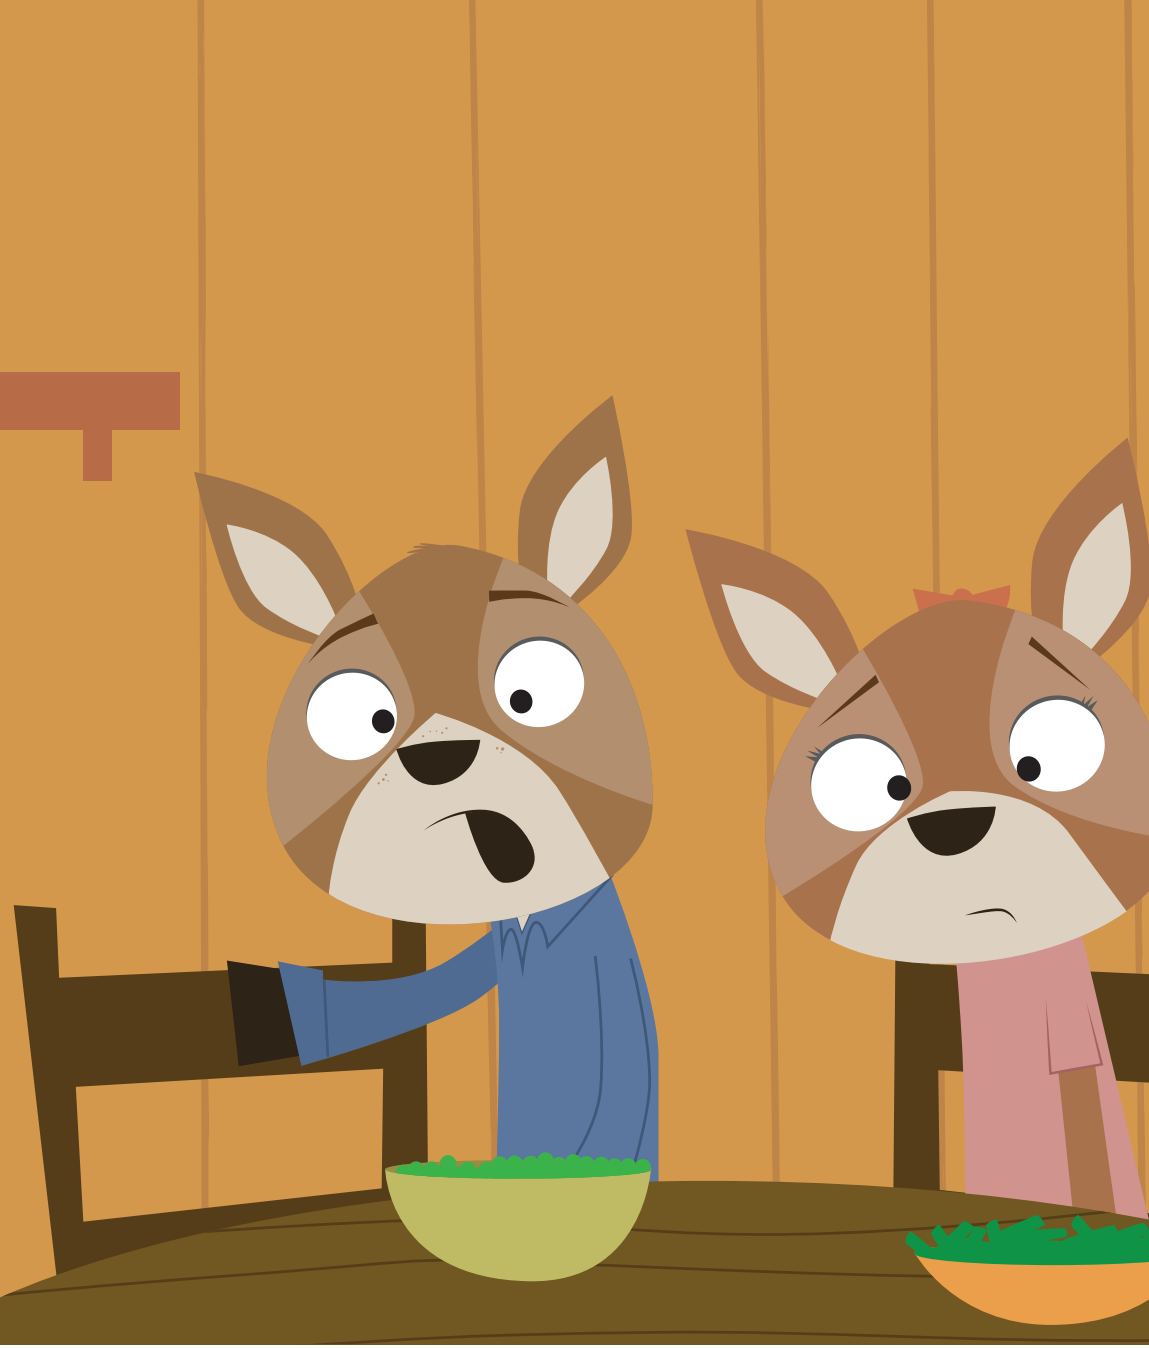
Here is their mother.

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom

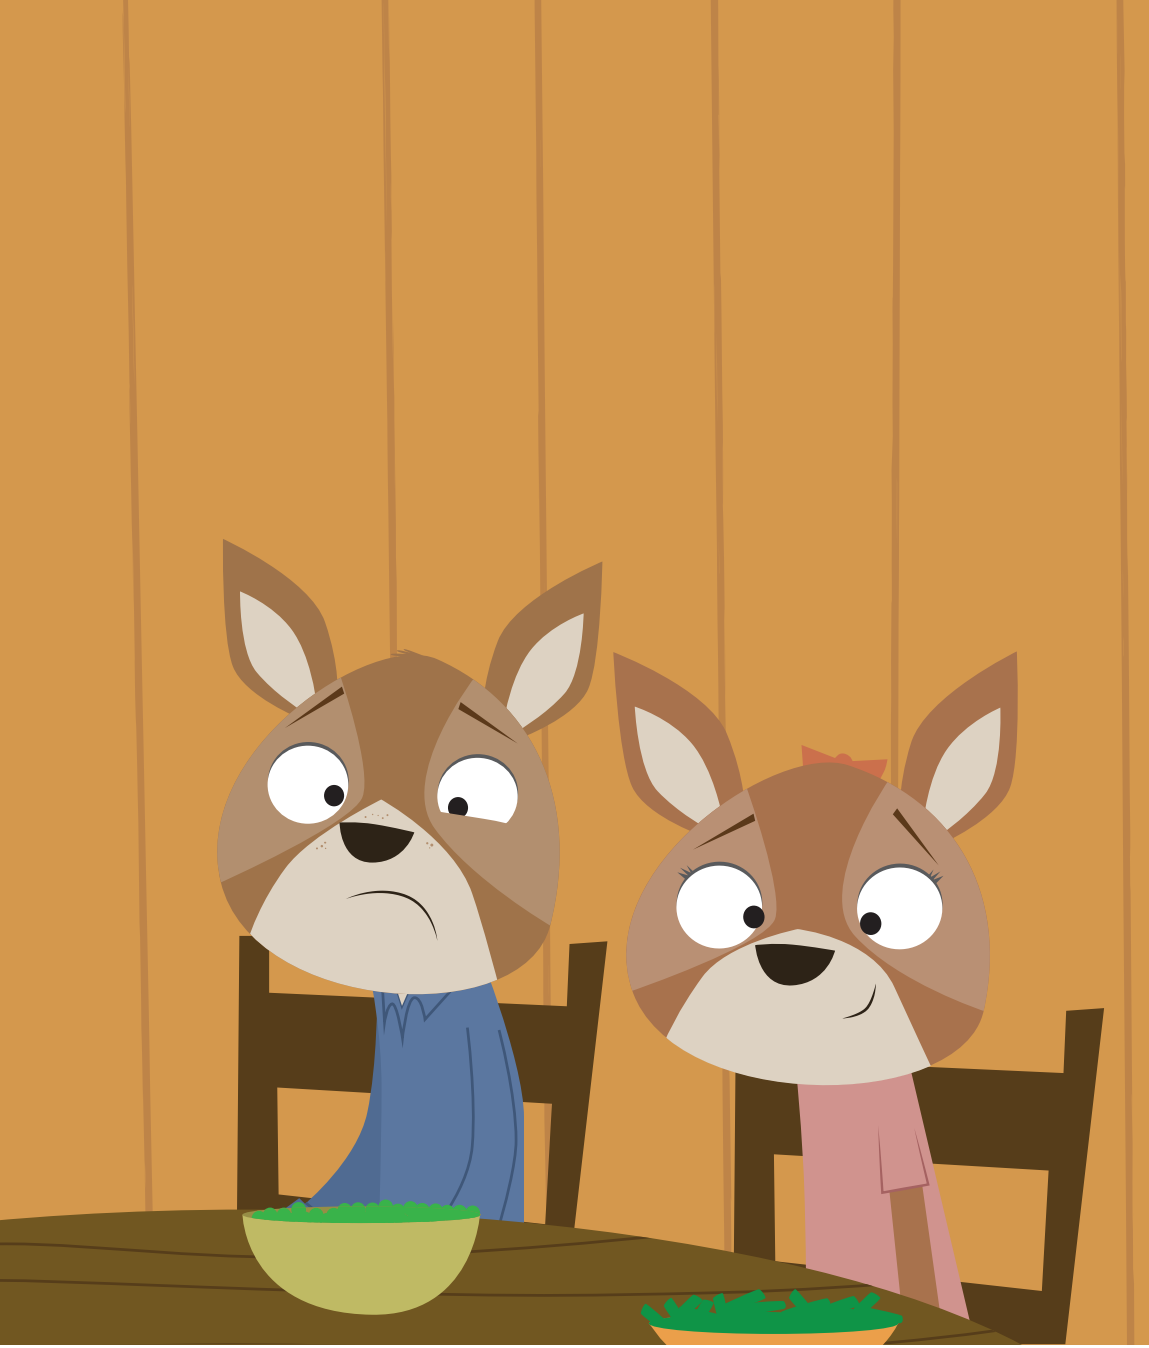


She eats beets.
She says they are treats.

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom

And mother deer likes fresh green peas.
She feeds on these!

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom

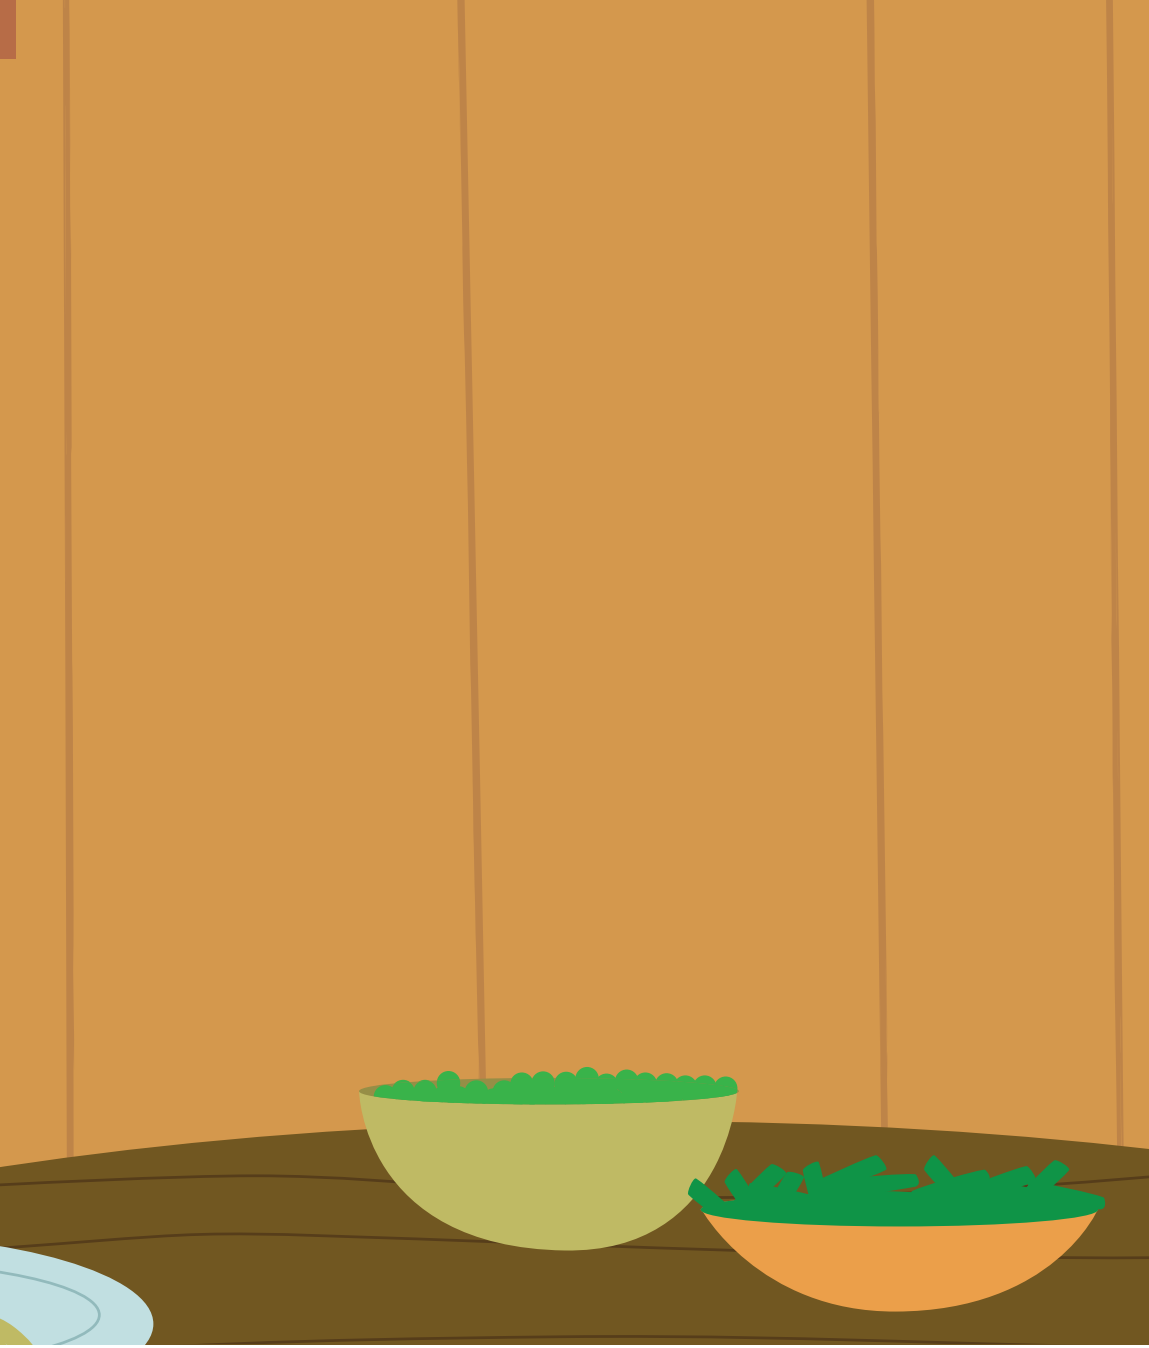


The sweet mother! She eats her beets and beans, too!

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom

The little deer see their mother eat.

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom



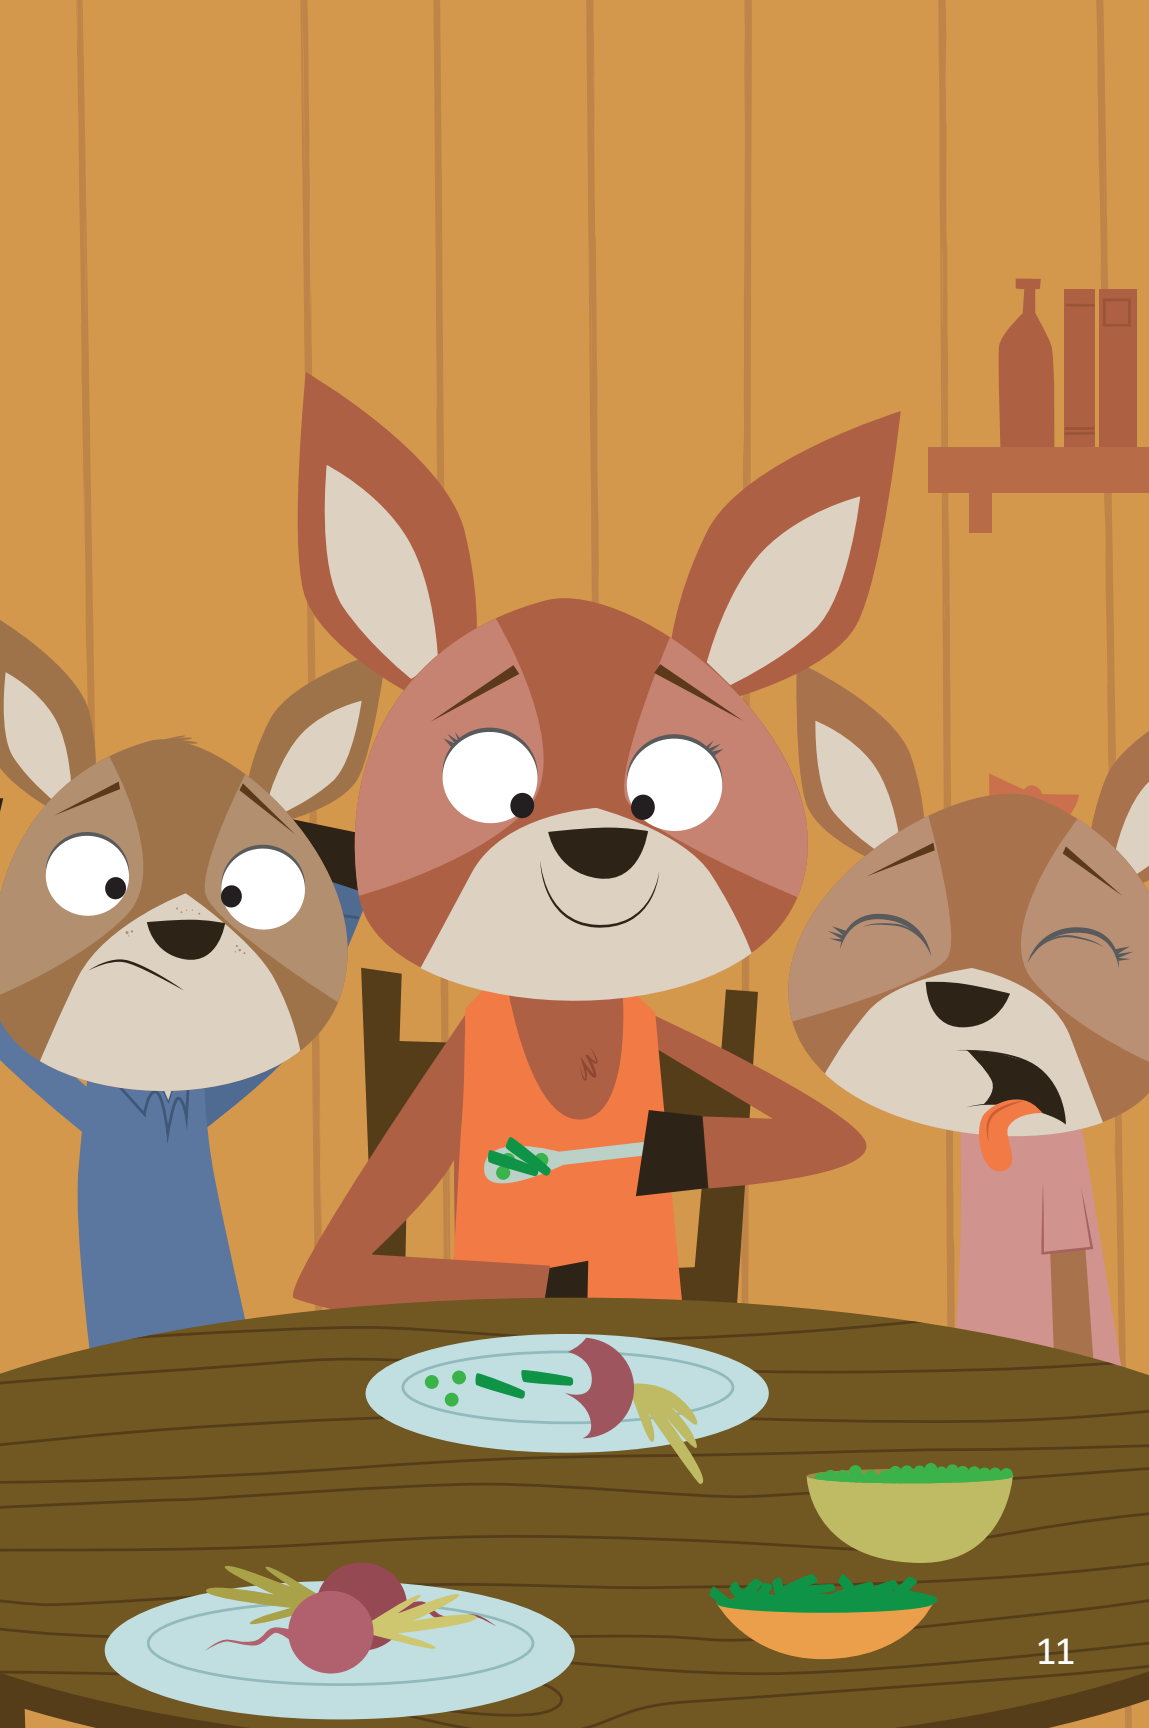
Little deer should do what mother does—
eat beets, beans, and peas.

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom

What? Eat peas and beets? These are not treats!

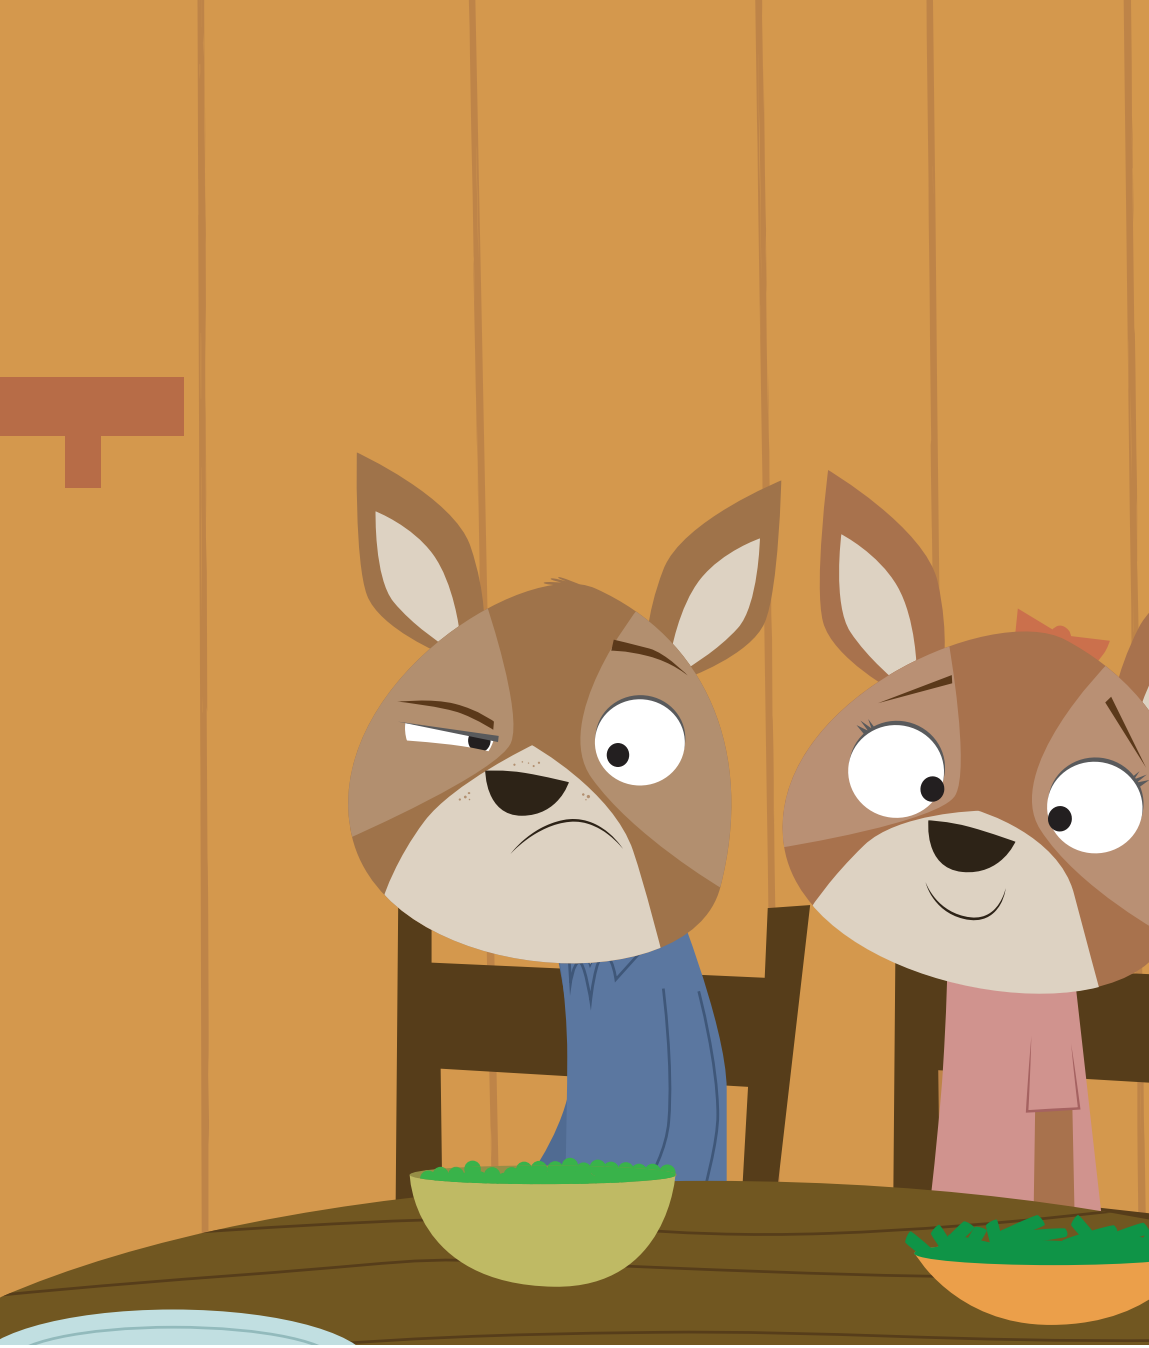
The little deer just won't! They don't!

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom



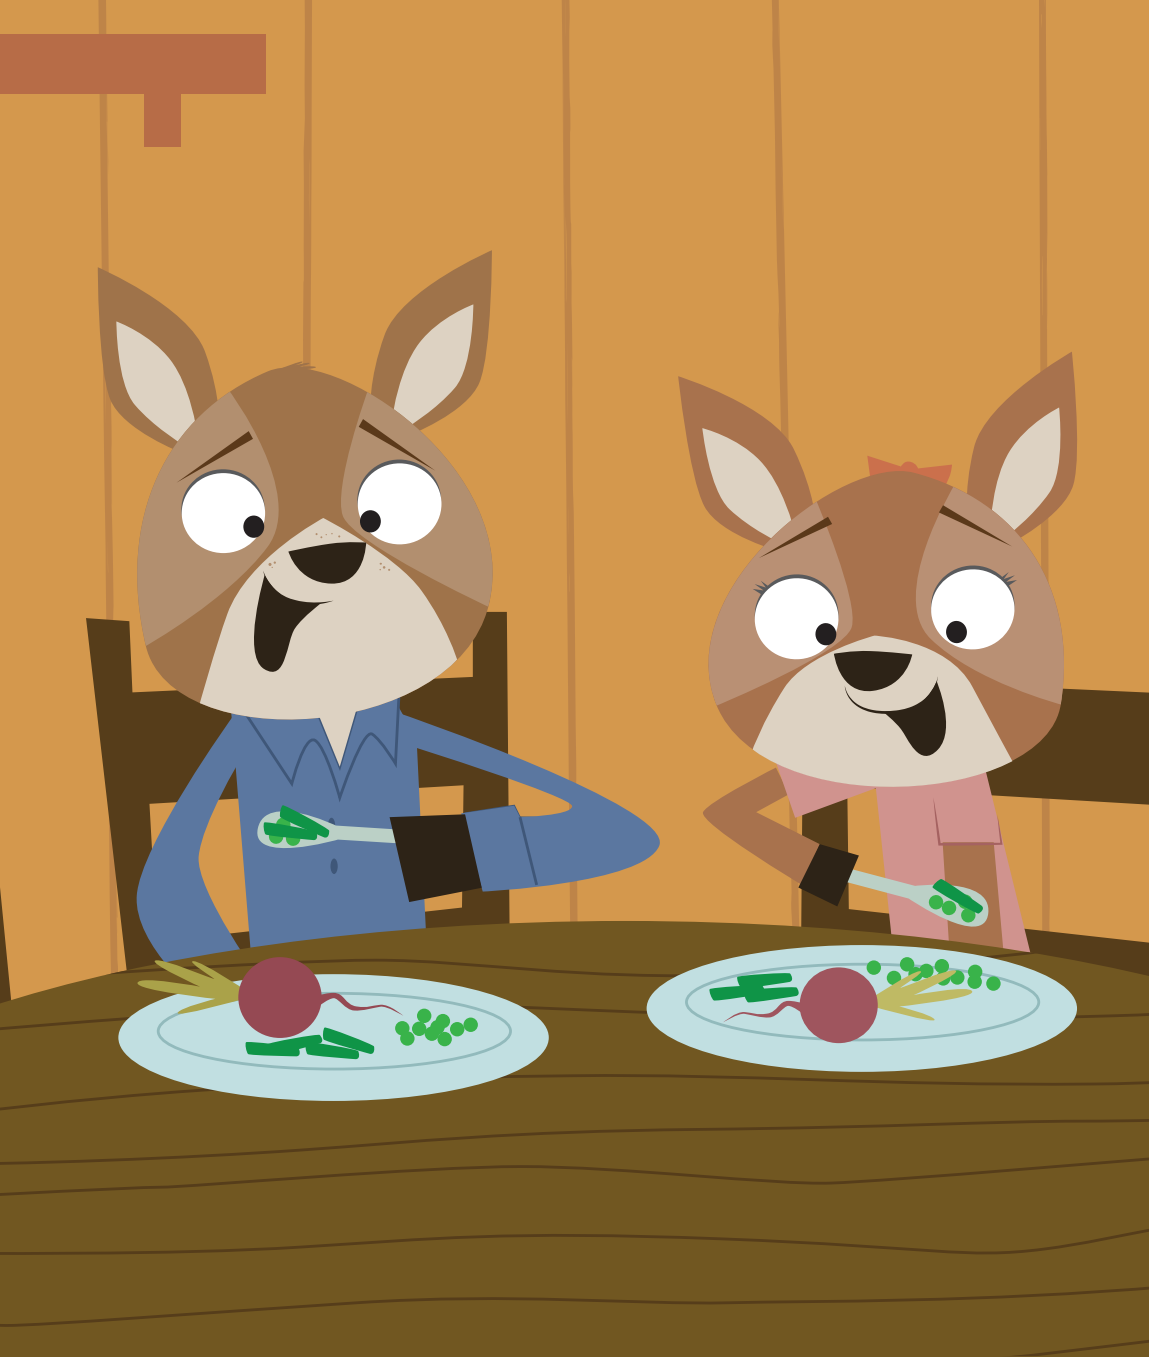
Little deer should do what mother does.

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom



They look at beets, peas, and beans.
They look at mother, too.
Will they? Won't they?

© Center for the Collaborative Classroom



They do!
Mother cheers. The little deer do, too!
